The ultimate representation of the new wine was revealed by Jesus, as He took the Passover cup of wine, 'the fruit of the vine' (v18), in His hand.[3] It is only through the sacrifice of His blood—shed for our sins—that every other benefit symbolized by new wine in Scripture is made freely available to us .

What is the Prophetic Meaning of New Wine?

Remember, the new wine is tied to the blood of Passover, the New Covenant, the receipt of God's Spirit, and the spiritual result that will be produced by those powerful factors. Trying to cram all that into a person who is unwilling to change will invariably result in his coming apart at the seams.

Corn, New Wine. That new wine signifies the derivative natural truth, is evident from the signification of corn, as being good; and from the signification of new wine, as being truth; which when predicated of the natural signify natural good and truth, and then bread and wine are predicated of the rational. That bread is celestial good, see above, (AC 276, 680, 1798, 2165, 2177, 3464, 3478 ...

While a mind-body connection is widely accepted, Western medicine persists in drawing a sharp line concerning spiritual health and disease. There is relatively little understanding of the spiritual roots which have led to sickness ever since the Fall of man in Eden, and even a significant part of the Church itself refuses to address itself to what is extremely biblical.

As we've said, new wine is associated in the Old and New Testaments with the blessing and joy of the Holy Spirit. Judges 9:13 says that "new wine cheers both God and men." Certainly God doesn't drink earthly wine, but He rejoices in the wine of the Spirit, and the cheer that it produces in His children.

The new life in Christ requires a new vessel: a new way of living. The truth continues with us. If God wants to take you to a new level in life, there are things you cannot bring along, because the new wine of a new level requires a new dimension of life. The applications are many, but the truth is the same: new wine needs new bottles. MEDITATE

Now that I'm sober, I consider myself to be a spiritual person, and an agnostic. The only spiritual connection I felt when I was drinking was worshipping my next bottle of wine. Before getting sober, I drank heavily for over 20 years, and drank daily for the last 10. I was high-functioning for someone with extremely low expectations.
