The 1855 Marriage Protest: In their 1855 marriage ceremony, women's rights advocates Lucy Stone and Henry Blackwell refused to honor laws that interfered with the rights of married women in particular. They advocated for wives to be able to legally exist outside of a husband's control, to inherit and own real estate, and have the right to their own wages.

The Fight for Women's Rights in the Past and Present
For many years women's rights movements have fought hard to address inequality, campaigning to change laws or taking to the streets to demand their rights are respected. New movements have flourished in the digital age, such as the #MeToo campaign which highlights the prevalence of gender-based violence and sexual harassment.
